HOLLYWOOD (CBSLA) - A political rally in Hollywood Sunday night turned into a mob scene when a large crowd of homeless protestors took over the stage, attacking the speakers and damaging equipment. The violence quickly turned into a chaotic scene as the protestors turned on the attendees. LAPD could be seen trying to arrest protestors in the crowd and attempted to clear a path for the speakers to get on stage. The Hollywood Reporter reported that the event was promoted as the "Hollywood's first all-ages LGBT political rally." The Huffington Post reported that only about 100 attendees showed up, most of whom were LGBT, while the promoters estimates a larger crowd of about 400. Organizers told the Huffington Post they spent five days promoting the event which included attending different schools to make sure there would be no problems with outside protests. Organizers tweeted that the event was canceled due to a lack of funds.
